1. Hello and welcome

	Rosemary started the meeting. She said hello to everyone. We said our names.
	Rosemary said sorry that there wasn't an agenda or minutes from the last meeting.
	We said what the traffic light cards mean: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The red card is to stop the meeting, or to vote no• The amber card is to ask a question• The green card is to vote yes. Or you can put it in the air when you want to speak

2. Health self assessment

Peter talked about the health self assessment.

Assessment is when you look at something to see how it is doing.

You can look at the easy read health assessment on our website.

Click here to see the assessment
(you need to be connected to the internet for this link to work).

Peter talked about the health things we are doing well at.

He also talked about the health things we are doing OK at.

Peter will find out if people from the Learning Disability Partnership Board can go to the local health events.

Janet Lord said thanks to Julie Clift (Hospital Liaison Nurse) and Denise Gaffing for all their help and hard work.

Janet said she would be in a mess without Julie. Julie has helped her a lot.

3. Free training course

 A photograph of two men standing next to a whiteboard. The man on the left is wearing a purple shirt and a patterned tie, and the man on the right is wearing a dark suit. They appear to be in a professional setting, possibly a training session.	Pete has set up a free training course. It's for people with a learning disability, and their family and carers.
 A photograph of a woman with short brown hair, wearing a light-colored top, speaking into a microphone. She is sitting at a table, and the back of someone's head is visible in the foreground, suggesting she is addressing an audience.	The training will help you learn about presentation skills. It will show you how to train people and get more confident.
 A photograph of a man with short grey hair, wearing a dark suit, speaking into a microphone. He is gesturing with his right hand, indicating he is in the middle of a presentation or speech.	The people who have done the training can help tell people about the issues faced by people with a learning disability.

The training is at NHS
Blackburn with Darwen, Guide
Business Centre, School Lane,
Blackburn, BB1 2QH.

The dates and times are:

Wednesday 30 March, 6.30pm -
7.30pm

Friday 1 April, 10am - 11.30am

Monday 11 April, 2pm - 4pm

If you want to do the training tell Peter.

You can ring him on

4. Changes to the Learning Disability Partnership Board website

Gemma told us about some changes to our website.

We are getting 2 new pages:

★ News

★ Learning

The new pages will be ready in April.

Have a look at our website
www.bwdld.org.uk

There's lots of interesting things on the website.

We will look at the website more at the next meeting.

5. 'Your support, your choice' website

	Rosemary told us about the new website for adult social care in Blackburn with Darwen.
	To see the website go to www.yoursupportyourchoice.org.uk on the internet.
	Rosemary asked everyone to have a look at the website.

6. Transition - moving from children's to adult services

	Transition is when someone turns 18 and moves from children's services to adult services.
	18 months ago parents and carers from this meeting told us what we needed to do to make transitions better.
<h1>2</h1>	Peter said there are 2 transition projects.
	1 project is working with 6 families with young children. We are helping the families to choose their support.

The other project is about social care money.

Peter has met some families at Newfield School.

They will plan how they want to spend their social care money.

Peter will let us know how things go.

7. Telling people what you think about the place where you live

	Janet Lord doesn't think Blackburn with Darwen is the same as it used to be.
	Rosemary said that one way of telling people what you think about the place where you live is by voting in local elections.
 	Karimeh Foster said she will show people around Blackburn Town Hall. People can see where Council members sit and decide things.

8. Accrington Road and Tower View Day Centres

Stephen Power is upset that Accrington Road Day Centre is closing.

It is his favourite place to go.

Rosemary said that Accrington Road and Tower View are closing because the Council has to save money.

The people who go to Accrington Road and Tower View will go to Stansfeld Centre and Hopwood Court.

People will get to visit their new centres before they move.

9. Transport

Angela Allen didn't go to a Food and Hygiene course because the Dial-A-Ride bus didn't pick her up.

Angela was upset that she missed the course.

Rosemary will talk to Brian Bailey about the problem with Dial-A-Ride.

We need to make sure there are buses there for people who need them.

10. The next meeting

 The image shows a calendar for the month of May. The days are arranged in a grid. The date 25 is circled in red, indicating the next meeting date.	The next meeting will be on Wednesday 25 May 2011 at Livesey Children's and All Age Centre 9.30am - for drinks. 10am - the meeting starts. 12 noon - we will have lunch.
 The image shows a man and a woman shaking hands. The man is holding a stack of money, including a 10-pound note and a 20-pound note. In the background, there is a photograph of a house.	We will talk about 'Housing' and 'Personalisation'.
