

Learning disability partnership board review

People with learning disabilities have a right to be listened to!

We have some exciting news.

The North West Training and Development Team are going to help the Learning Disability Partnership Board make sure that people in Blackburn with Darwen with a learning disability are listened to.

Dene Donalds and Laurence Clark will help us to choose the most important things that we want to tell senior managers and Council members about.

They will help us to say how life for people with a learning disability can be made better.

Sally McIvor, Executive Director People, from Blackburn with Darwen Council will open the event.

In the afternoon there will be a chance for people to share their thoughts with Sally and health and social care commissioners (people who buy services).

The event takes place on Thursday 3rd April 2014.

At Bank Top Neighbourhood and Learning Centre, Arthur Way, Blackburn, BB2 1QP.
